Warwickshire Youth Justice & Family Intervention Service Strategic Plan

Recommendation

That the County Council adopts the Warwickshire Youth Justice & Family Intervention Service Strategic Plan 2015/16 (as set out at Appendix 1).

1. Introduction

- 1.1 The annual Youth Justice Strategic Plan and its submission to the Youth Justice Board for England and Wales (YJB) is a statutory requirement under the Crime and Disorder Act 1998. Funding from the YJB to youth offending teams is reliant on this submission and the current format was introduced in 2009.
- 1.2 This plan reflects on the work of the Warwickshire Youth Justice & Family Intervention Service (WYJFIS) throughout last year and performance against the 2014/15 national indicators.
- 1.3 The plan introduces the national objectives and local priorities for WYJFIS for 2015/16.

2. Proposal

- 2.1 The Plan will be implemented throughout 2015/16.
- 2.2 The County Council is asked to adopt the Warwickshire Youth Justice & Family Intervention Service Strategic Plan 2015/16.

3. Timescales associated with the decision/Next steps

The objectives within the plan will be reviewed by the WYJFIS throughout the year on a quarterly basis and performance shared with WYJFIS Chief Officers' Board, the Warwickshire Safer Partnership Board and the Health & Wellbeing Board.
