Decision Taken

That the Portfolio Holder for Transport and Planning approves that the Warwickshire County Council (Temple Way and Station Road, Coleshill) (Prohibition and Restriction of Waiting) Order 2014 is made as advertised.

Reasons for Decisions

Temple Way is mainly a residential road between Station Road and Roman Way, Coleshill, with parking on both sides of the road. Temple Way from its junction with Station Road has Industrial Premises with limited off street parking places, for approximately 100 yards. Vehicles associated with the industrial/commercial units are parking on Temple Way, restricting access for Emergency Vehicles and compromising safety for vehicles accessing / egressing from Temple Way.

Through discussions with businesses directly affected by these proposals, residents, and with the support of the Local County Councillor, a scheme was put forward to introduce Prohibition and Restriction of Waiting (Double Yellow Lines) parking restrictions on Temple Way as detailed below:

Temple Way, Coleshill

- (i) North side, from its junction with Station Road, westwards for a distance of 96 metres.
- (ii) South side, from its junction with Station Road, westwards for a distance of 63 metres.

Station Road, Coleshill

- (i) West side, from its junction with Temple Way, northwards for 10 metres.
- (ii) West side, from its junction with Temple Way, southwards for 10 metres.

Proposals for changes to introduce a Prohibition and Restriction of Waiting in Temple Way and Station Road, Coleshill were advertised in the Tamworth Herald on 3rd April 2014.

In the Statutory Consultation, over 300 letters were hand delivered to residents, and businesses in Temple Way/Station Road. No objections have been received. The Local County Councillor, Cllr Peter Fowler, visited all the businesses on Temple Way to explain the proposed waiting restrictions; they were unanimous in their support. Coleshill Town Council was also consulted and they have not raised any objections to the proposals.

One objection from Warwickshire Police was received.
