 - Bribery and corruption – A bribe is a financial or other advantage that is offered or requested with the intention of inducing or rewarding the improper performance of a relevant function or activity, or with the knowledge or belief that the acceptance of such an advantage would constitute the improper performance of such a function or activity.

2. Policy Objectives

5.5 The administering authority will take appropriate action with those who defraud the Council, or who conduct corrupt activities, or where there has been financial malpractice.

5.6 The Council is alive to the need to ensure that any investigation process is not misused and therefore, any abuse of process (such as raising malicious allegations) will be addressed as appropriate.

- 7.3 Managers are expected to conduct risk reviews of the systems and procedures for which they are responsible and proactively update where weakness has been identified.
- 7.4 Pension Fund Committees and Local Pension Board members receive regular reports on Internal Audit activity, and these will include summary details of investigations into allegations of fraud and financial impropriety.
- 7.5 Following any investigation, sanctions will be applied where fraud and corruption are found to be present. This will be done in a comprehensive, consistent and proportionate manner whereby all possible and relevant sanctions – disciplinary, civil and/or criminal - are considered. 9.2 The Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 (the Act) places a legal responsibility on employers to ensure that matters of serious public concern can be addressed. In order to meet the requirements of the act, the Council has a whistleblowing policy.

9.3 A 'qualifying disclosure' of information is any disclosure of information that is made in the reasonable belief that it is both in the public interest and that one or more of the following is either happening at the present time, took place in the past or is likely to happen in the future

- A criminal offence
- A miscarriage of justice

- Damage to the environment
- A breach of any other legal obligation
- Concealment of any of the above

9.4 In making the disclosure, an individual must have a reasonable belief that the information disclosed shows one or more of the offences or breaches listed above. The belief need not be correct, but the individual must show that they held the belief and that it was a reasonable belief, in the circumstances, at the time of the disclosure.

9.5 Many fraudulent activities are discovered by chance or 'tip off' and the administering authority promotes the Whistleblowing policy to encourage and enable these to be reported.

9.6 Members of the public are encouraged to report any concerns which they may have by using the Fund complaints procedure.

9.0 Investigation

9.1 All allegations and suspicions of fraud suspected cases are required to be reported to Internal Audit. Suspected irregularities and any fraud related matters reported to the Fund will be investigated within Pension Services in the first instance, unless there is a reason for the investigation to be independent or external, with a target to resolve within three months of identification/report.

This is essential:

- To ensure the consistent treatment of information regarding fraud and corruption
- To facilitate a proper and thorough investigation by an experienced audit team, in accordance with the requirements of the CPIA and PACE codes of practice.

9.2 Internal audit would carry out investigations where independence was required and/or where a matter is of a more serious nature, and follow up appropriately. The Council's Counter Fraud Bribery and Corruption Framework can be found in the link below:
